

in the presence of such other Nicholas Surall & John Morris & Richard Morris

Proved at London 14th April 1826 before the Judge by the Oath of the Revd Joseph Cuthbert Clerk one of the Esquires to whom Administration was granted having been first sworn by Commission duly to Administer Power reserved to his Reverend - Transcripts Stone and the Revd Thomas Glover Clerks

William Redding
otherwise
Reading

This is the last Will and Testament of me William Reading of the Parish of St. Martin's in the County of Middlesex fuller being first in mind memory and understanding thanks to Almighty God for the same first & will and first that all my just debts and funeral expenses be fully paid and satisfactorily discharged by my Executor hereinafter named After which I give and bequeath unto my son William Reading all that freehold messuage or tenement called Stone House in the aforesaid Parish and County together with all that garden called the Upper Garden with all my goods and household furniture (except as hereafter excepted) for his own free and personal property but if it should so happen that my son William Reading shall depart this life without heir lawfully begotten then I order and direct give and bequeath all the above bequeathed unto him unto my daughter Mary Crows Clutton that is Mary Ann and John Crows place and share alike except those that I give and bequeath solely unto my Granddaughter Mary Crows aforesaid but if in case my son William Reading should stand in need and necessity of real want then I order and impower my said son to sell sign and deliver either of the above premises or goods for his own natural support in that case but not otherwise And as to the remainder of my stock of Corn Hay flowers and horses and other things that I may be possessed of my son to take at a fair valuation and that money to pay the valuation may arise to with my ready at money money at interest with the interest so arising with my goods due to me & order and direct give and bequeath the same to equally divided between my three children William Reading Mary Crows and Ann Crows but if in case my daughter Ann Crows should depart this life before her husband her part or share of money to what it may so be left to go unto and to be equally divided between her brother and sister William Reading and Mary Crows And as it is before mentioned of an exception I do hereby except out of my said goods before bequeathed my good Master Pillow Bookends and hanging two Bookends pair of Blankets two pair of sheets and my Clock which I order and direct give and bequeath unto my daughter daughter Mary Crows and for the use of the same at my decease And lastly I nominate as my Executor and appoint my son William Reading sole Executor to this my last Will and Testament And I do hereby bequeath and make void all other former Will or Wills heretofore made by me and declared in witness whereof I have set my hand and affixed my seal this 14th day of October 1826 and thousand eight hundred and twenty six The Mark of W^m Reading (Signature) signed sealed published and declared by the Testator William Reading as and for his last Will and Testament and at his request and in his presence we have subscribed our names as Witnesses hereto Thomas Hartland the Mark X of Thomas Hartland & W^m Morris

Proved at London 15th April 1826 before the Judge by the Oath of William Redding (in the Will written Reading) the son and sole Executor to whom Admin. was granted having been first sworn by Commission duly to Administer

William Reynolds
12
J.B.

This is the last Will and Testament of me William Reynolds of No 13 Upper Thames Street in the City of London and is signed with my own hand at the bottom of this sheet of paper and also on the other side or sides thereof I being that my son William James Reynolds and my son John Charles Reynolds may be joint Executors of this my Will and I also being that my body may be interred in my own Vault in the Churchyard of Saint Sepulchre in the City of London, on the South side thereof where my late dear wife and my two infants are now ^{lying} and also the worldly goods with which the Almighty has blessed me I dispose of as follows I give and bequeath unto Barbara Junant wife of James Junant Butcher of Bramhall in the County of Essex the sum of twenty five pounds I also give and bequeath unto Mary Reynolds Spinster the sum of ten pounds the above are daughters of my late brother Robert Reynolds I also give and bequeath unto the Boys Charity School at Sepulchre Middlesex the sum of ten pounds I also give and bequeath unto the Girls Charity School at Sepulchre Middlesex the sum of ten pounds I also give and bequeath unto the Ladies Charity School in Cow Lane in the City of London the sum of ten pounds these bequests in full exclusive of the legacy duty I also will and decree that all the Articles in my small Cedar Box and all the Articles in my small oval Box or in any of my Drawers or Plans numbered as Jewellery also such English or foreign Monies or Coins which are or may be in my Treasury or other Drawers may be equally divided betwixt my two sons William James Reynolds and John Charles Reynolds And I also will and decree that all the Old China now in the possession of my son John Charles Reynolds may be equally divided to and with his brother William James Reynolds my aforesaid son John Charles Reynolds to retain and keep all the Furniture Plate Linen Glass Wine Books and other things of great value now in my house No 38 Upper Thames Street in the City of London except the old China heretofore directed to be divided with his brother) I give and bequeath unto my son William James Reynolds all my household Furniture Plate Linen Books Wine or any other Articles or things belonging to me which now are or may be at the time of my decease in the Cottage which I now occupy in the Hamlet of St. Margate in the County of Middlesex except such Articles of Jewellery or English or foreign Coins in my two boxes in the Treasury Drawers in my double Chest of Drawers which I have before directed to be equally divided betwixt my two sons aforesaid in lieu of his share of the Furniture Plate Linen Books China Glass &c in my aforesaid house No 38 Upper Thames Street in the City of London and I also will and decree that my aforesaid son William James Reynolds shall retain and keep all the Furniture Plate Glass Linen Wine Books or other things which I have sent or may hereafter send into his house No 95 Great Brunswick Street or any other house which he may occupy and wherever I be by a certain deed duly signed and witnessed on or about the month of last past give and assign over unto my son William James Reynolds and to my son John Charles Reynolds all my ready monies and securities for monies also all my stock in Trade Book Debt Leases of Real Estate subject to certain conditions therein stated I now will and decree that all the Real and Personal of my property not before disposed of may and shall be equally divided betwixt my two sons aforesaid this I trust will be considered an equal distribution of my Estate and Effects which it is fully my desire to make to my aforesaid sons in strictest equality I have set my hand to the two former sides of this paper containing my last will and testament and my hand and seal as under this ninth day of November in the Year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and twenty five W^m Reynolds (4)

Apparated Personally Rowland Mumburn of Chancery Lane London Esquire and William Little of Saint Andrews Wharf Upper Thames Street London Coal Merchant and being severally sworn to depose the truth made Oath as follows that they knew and were well acquainted with William Reynolds formerly of Saint John Street Smithfield but late of Upper Thames Street in the City of London deceased for several years before and down to the time of his death and also with his manner and character of handwriting and submission bearing after him write and subscribe his name to writings and having now carefully viewed and perused the paper writing hereto annexed purporting to be and contain the last will and testament of the said deceased the same beginning

Reference:-

PROB 11/1711

COPYRIGHT - NOT TO BE REPRODUCED PHOTOGRAPHICALLY WITHOUT PERMISSION

as also the word
"Simon" as the word appears interlined between the words and struck lines pointing from the bottom side of the said will

"This is the last will and Testament" bearing date thence, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred twenty five and thus submitted: "Wm. Reynolds" then there appearing by counsel that they verily and in their consciences believe the whole body, sense and contents of the said will beginning ending and submitted as aforesaid to be all of the proper handwriting and submission of the said William Reynolds deceased. Then William William Little on Saturday the eighth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty five the said William Reynolds Esq. and William Little were duly sworn to the truth of this Affidavit before me John Dunham Junr. Pres. Geo. H. Box Noty Pub

Deposed at London 19th April 1826 before the Reverend John Dunham Doctor of Laws and Avocate by the Oath of William James Reynolds and John Charles Reynolds the sons the Executors to the said Administration was granted having been first sworn duly to Administer.

Sampson
Revell

66

This is the last Will and Testament of me Sampson Revell of Smallash in the Parish of Egg Bushland in the County of Devon Gentleman first I first that my just debts and my funeral and Testamentary Expenses shall be paid by my Executors in Trust hereinafter named out of the first monies that may come to them lands by virtue of this my Will And I give and bequeath unto my brother John Revell of Widdow in the said Parish of Egg Bushland Gentleman all my freehold and leasehold as may be his to use at the time of my decease in respect of my one third or other part or share of and in a mortgage and promises situate in Little Church Lane in Plymouth in the said County of Devon of which he is also a part Owner Also I give and bequeath unto my Nephew Samuel Revell of Plymouth aforesaid the sum of one hundred pounds sterling to be paid to him within six calendar months next after my decease Also I give and bequeath unto my Son William Carter Revell and my daughter Susannah Revell all my China Table Linen and Jewels and Comportments to be equally divided between them their heirs and assigns as soon as conveniently may be after my decease And in case there shall be any dispute between them as to the division thereof I first give and bequeath in Trust to make such division which shall be binding and conclusive on my said Son and daughter respectively Also I give and bequeath unto my said daughter all the Plate that was the property of the late Mr. William Carter the husband of my late wife Eleanor Revell and bequeathed to her by her Will Also I give and bequeath unto my Nephew John Revell the younger of Widdow aforesaid Gentleman the son of my said brother John Revell and Tobias Pollard of Widdow in the Parish of St. Andrew in the said County of Devon Gentleman their heirs and assigns for ever All my freehold and leasehold and other hereditaments and all other my real estate whatsoever and wheresoever with their respective rights members and Appurtenances in which I have any estate in possession reversion remainder or expectancy or over which I have any power of disposal the whole thereof is hereinafter comprised under the general denomination of my said Real Estate To hold the same unto the said John Revell the younger and Tobias Pollard their heirs and assigns for ever To the use upon the trust and for the intents and purposes hereinafter expressed and contained concerning the same that is to say To the use of my said Son and his assigns for and during the term of his natural life without impediment of Waste And from and immediately after the termination of that estate by forfeiture or otherwise in his life time To the use of the said John Revell the younger and Tobias Pollard and their heirs during the natural life of my said Son upon Trust to support the marriage issue and estate hereinafter limited and protect the same from being forfeited or conveyed and for that purpose to make entries and bring Actions as aforesaid shall require with power to permit my said Son and his assigns during his life to receive and take the